

Sermon Summary

Planted by Dave Fuller (16 Aug 2026)

Key Theme: The Father is calling His sons and daughters back into their true identity — not servants but Spirit-born children who live from rest, righteousness, and relationship.

Concise Summary

Dave Fuller teaches that the Christian life begins and continues through the blood of Jesus, which restores believers to their true identity as sons of God. Many Christians live beneath their privileges because they approach God through law, performance, and guilt, rather than through the finished work of Christ. The Father desires His children to come boldly, without shame, and enjoy unbroken fellowship with Him.

Dave emphasises that believers are spirit beings, created to live from their new creation identity, not from the soul or emotions. Renewing the mind is essential so that the soul aligns with the spirit. Living from the spirit brings rest, joy, and stability — symbolised in Psalms 92 by the flourishing palm tree.

The sermon calls the church to enter conference season with expectation, faith, and spiritual hunger, knowing that God weaves words of wisdom and knowledge into preaching to meet individual needs. The Father's covenant love is constant, and believers are invited daily to declare His kindness and faithfulness.

Ultimately, identity determines destiny. When Christians embrace their righteousness in Christ, they flourish, grow, and live victoriously as sons seated with Christ in heavenly places.

Expanded Summary with Scripture References

1. The Blood and the Father's Heart

Dave opens by honouring the blood of Jesus, the foundation of salvation and restoration.

“Nothing but the blood...”

The Father lost fellowship with His children at the fall, and redemption restores what was lost — even better than before.

Scripture:

- Revelation 13:8 — “The Lamb slain before the foundation of the world.”
- Luke 24:13–35 — The road to Emmaus and the “warmth” of revelation.

2. Expectation and the Gifts of the Spirit

Dave encourages the church to stir expectation for conference and for God to speak.

Faith comes by hearing, and believers can “prick up the ears” of their heart.

Scripture:

- Proverbs 4:20 — “Attend to my words.”
- Galatians 3:5 — Miracles come “by the hearing of faith.”
- 1 Corinthians 12–14 — Desire spiritual gifts.

3. Word of Wisdom & Word of Knowledge

Word of Wisdom: God is calling His sons back into their true identity.

Word of Knowledge: Many believers have settled for a servant mindset because they feel they've "used up their chances."

But the Father keeps no record of wrongs.

Scripture:

- James 2:10 — Break one law, break all.
- 1 Corinthians 13:5 — Love "keeps no record of wrongs."
- Luke 15:11–32 — The prodigal son restored to sonship.

4. Spirit, Soul, and Body — Living from the Spirit

Believers are spirit beings, possessing a soul and living in a body.

The spirit is the part connected to God.

Scripture:

- 1 Thessalonians 5:23 — Spirit, soul, body.
- 2 Corinthians 5:17 — New creation.
- John 3:13 — Jesus lived from His heavenly position even while on earth.

Living from the soul leads to striving and performance. Living from the spirit leads to rest, joy, and power.

5. New Covenant Identity

The old covenant was performance-based; the new covenant is identity-based.

Believers are already blessed, seated, and accepted.

Scripture:

- Ephesians 1:3 — Blessed with every spiritual blessing.
- Ephesians 1:4 — Holy and blameless before Him.
- Romans 8:15–17 — Spirit of adoption, not slavery.

6. Psalm 92 — The Sabbath Psalm of Rest

Dave highlights Psalm 92 as the only psalm written specifically for the Sabbath — a picture of rest.

Key points:

Declare God's lovingkindness in the morning.

Declare His faithfulness at night.

The righteous flourish like a palm tree — flexible, victorious, resilient.

Scripture:

- Psalm 92:1–2, 4–5, 12–13 — Flourishing in righteousness.
- Isaiah 61:3 — “Trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord.”

7. Covenant Kindness — Mephibosheth

Dave uses Mephibosheth as a picture of believers: crippled by the fall, yet invited to the King's table.

Scripture:

- 2 Samuel 9 — David shows covenant kindness because of Jonathan.

8. Joy, Peace, and Righteousness

Believers can laugh in faith because God laughs at the enemy.

Scripture:

- Psalms 2:4 — “He who sits in the heavens laughs.”
- Philippians 4:4 — “Rejoice in the Lord always.”
- Romans 14:17 — Righteousness, peace, joy in the Holy Spirit.

9. Identity Determines Destiny

When believers embrace their identity as sons, they flourish, grow, and walk in victory.

The Father delights in His children coming boldly, resting in His love, and living from their spirit.
